Fifteen authors reimagine the folklore and mythology of East and South Asia in short stories that are enchanting, heartbreaking, romantic, and passionate.

A buzzy and surprising sci-fi novel, The Loneliest Girl in the Universe proves there are worse things in space than being alone.

Based on interviews with women who were kidnapped by Boko Haram, this poignant novel tells the story of a girl who was taken from her home in Nigeria and her harrowing fight for survival

An update of Pride and Prejudice, National Book Award finalist Ibi Zoboi skillfully balances cultural identity, class, and gentrification against the heady magic of first love

A funny, heartfelt collaboration about Arthur and Ben, two very different boys who can't decide if the universe is pushing them together—or pulling them apart.
